BYU-Idaho Apartment Living Standards exist to facilitate and advance the mission of the university and promote the physical safety and spiritual well-being of each student.

The BYU-Idaho Apartment Living Standards explicitly include the tenets of the Honor Code and the principles found in For the Strength of Youth: A Guide for Making Choices. The following sections are not intended to restate standards that students have already committed to uphold, but rather address unique conditions and standards specific to BYU-Idaho approved housing and single student apartment life.

Entertainment and Media

Students are responsible to filter and block material that is suggestive, vulgar, immoral, violent, illegal, or pornographic in any way. All other media (visual or otherwise) in the apartment should be in harmony with the principles taught in For the Strength of Youth: A Guide for Making Choices.

Curfew

- Students should be in their own apartments by midnight (12 a.m.) Saturday through Thursday nights and 1 a.m. on Friday nights.
- Apartment visitors must leave in time to arrive at their own apartments by curfew.

Alcohol

The CES Honor Code commits students to abstain from alcoholic beverages. The possession of any alcoholic beverage (open or closed) in the apartment is prohibited.

Firearms and Weapons

Firearms, ammunition, explosives, hunting bows, knives, swords, martial arts weapons, BB guns, pellet guns, paint-ball guns, and any other device capable of inflicting injury or damaging property are prohibited on the premises of approved housing properties and in all approved housing apartments, including managers’ apartments. Facsimiles or likenesses of firearms or dangerous weapons are also prohibited.
