

Why Conduct Informational Interviews?

Gain knowledge

- They can share skills you may need to be successful
- You can learn about the company

Practice

- You gain skills that can prepare you for future interviews

Network

- You can meet upper-management personnel that may refer you for open positions

Where to start?

1. Create a list of companies you are interested in

2. Pick positions that interest you from those companies

3. Find alumni who work in those companies

4. Message them to set up the interview time

For more information on how to prepare and how to conduct informational interviews

Visit our website!

www.byui.edu/career/students/job-market-readiness

Or

Set up an appointment with us!

byui.joinhandshake.com/stu/appointments