

Benefits of Doing an Internship

- To meet BYU-Idaho graduation requirements
- To obtain practical work experience in the major
- To help with a career choice
- To apply the skills and knowledge learned in school
- To earn money to pay for college education
- To build an employment history
- To enhance and add to classroom education
- To see if the student has chosen the correct area of study
- To establish contacts for future employment opportunities
- For personal growth, confidence, and professional interaction
- To experience life in another city or state
- To gain exposure to different job opportunities
- To obtain experience working for a specific employer
- To use as a reference for entrance into graduate school
- To work with equipment and technology not accessible on campus